The one best site for SQL 2005, Visual Studio 2005, Biztalk 2006

You are too busy! You don't have time to search! You must be thinking, "What's the one best site for the new product launch information." I just finished interviewing Ilya Bukshteyn for CIPS on Monday, so I put the question to him Monday night. "As the resident guru at Microsoft Redmond, what is the one *best* site for this information."

Ilya, recommended: <http://www.microsoft.com/launch2005>

There's a bit of marketing but also some solid information too, if you drill down. Have a look!

Thanks, Stephen

I'll be providing a link to the interview with Ilya here. I may also have a podcast with him too. Watch for it!

Here's two prior interviews: <http://www.stephenibaraki.com/cips/v35/ibuks.htm>
