

Big wheels keep on turning, but middleware allows firms to know where they're going

A truly next-generation supply chain means companies know what they're tracking, not just where goods are. We help you explore the software options.

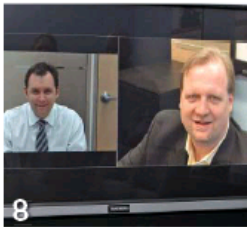

18

READER ROI

5 THINGS YOU'LL LEARN IN THIS ISSUE

PAGE 1 Why it might make sense to cancel your next business trip. PAGE 10 How thin clients are changing the way health records are protected. PAGE 23 Why open source adoption rates are so slow here. PAGE 29 Why Google Apps isn't the only alternative to MS Office. PAGE 32 How much throughput you'll get from the latest IEEE wireless standard.

8

NEWS

- 1 | Microsoft Convergence coverage; the IT secrets of Zip.ca
- 4 | Why Dell has no user group; CIPS teams with CATA
- 6 | The challenge of firing your outsourcer; TechCrunch's power
- 8 | Videoconferencing starts to win over its early skeptics
- 9 | Cognos reacts to Oracle's acquisition of Hyperion
- 10 | St. Joseph's Hospital tries to avoid a Sick Kids-style scandal
- 11 | Symantec plans software suite to ease security management
- 12 | e-Identity brings down the house; an update on IT hiring

12

EDITORIAL

- 16 | Like or not, the women in IT issue isn't going away

SPECIAL REPORT: OPEN SOURCE

- 23 | An Info-Tech report reveals N.A. attitudes towards OSS
- 25 | Fear, uncertainty and doubt keep users wary

23

ARCHITECTURE

- 27 | VeriSign's Project Titan may offer lessons for enterprises

- 28 | Novell draws an ITIL blueprint for better data centres

PERSONAL TECH

- 29 | WordPerfect, Notes try to keep up with Web 2.0 movement
- 30 | Palm's Treo reviewed; the keylogging problem gets worse

NETWORKING

- 32 | Apple and others get ready for the coming of 802.11n
- 33 | Bruce Telecom upgrades for IPTV opportunities
- 34 | Siemens hops on the FMC bandwagon

CIPS IT PROFESSIONAL

- 35 | Improved security requires a tighter community
- 36 | The compliance conundrum; a cyber-security checklist
- 37 | SAM programs explained; the rise of ISO-17799

USER EXPERIENCE

- 38 | The government of Canada's first CIO looks back